Mrs. Dixon-Mokeba Founding Director/Head of School Carolina School for Inquiry

The Basics!

Greetings! My name is Mrs. Victoria Dixon-Mokeba. I am a wife, Mom, Mimi, sister, auntie and friend. I live in Columbia, South Carolina with my husband and our son Natondi. I have an adult daughter Latoya who lives in Greenville, SC with my son-in-law, Lee and grandson Kent-Kent. I love to travel with my family and spend time at the Isle of Palms. As founding Director/Head of School of CSI, this will be my 12th year. I am looking forward to another great year for our students and families.

MY CHILDHOOD!

I was born to Rev. Lucious & Thelma Dixon and raised in Lexington, SC. I am the last of two older brothers. I have always wanted to be a teacher as I was constantly playing school with stuffed animals/dolls as a child. After graduating from Airport High School, I attended Morris College in Sumter, SC receiving a Bachelors Arts in Political Science/History during this time is when I met my husband Samuel.
